

LMG

Ludwig-Marum-Gymnasium

School building: Our school building is very large. We have a climbing wall, a football field, and a basketball court

People: We have got teachers and tutors. We are the students. At the school we have got a headmaster and a housekeeper.

Places and rooms: We have got a lot of rooms. We have got a biology room and a chemistry room. We make music in the music room. In the art room we can paint pictures. In the break we can go outside and play. After the school we can eat at the school cafeteria.

Projects: Each year we have got the EWT day. We collect money for schools in poorer countries.

Headmistress: Our headmistress is Elke Engelmann.

School name: Our school is named in honor of Mr Ludwig Marum.

One world day.

We run for various poor countries and collect money for them by running.

Open [REDACTED] day

We look at the different buildings.

Ludwig Marum was born on November 5th, 1882. He attended a grammar school in Bruchsal. He was a politician and lawyer. He was arrested on march 10th, 1933 and murdered by Nazis.

Our school has got 400 students and 63 teachers.

We have got school clubs.

Our schoolyard is big and we have a cool climbing wall and a cafeteria.

Our headmistress is called Elke Engelmann.

Our school

Our school is in Berghausen, Schlossgarten street 11 and its name is Ludwig Marum Gymnasium.
Our school is big.
We have got 77 teachers and 700 students.

We have got lots of tutor groups:
music, circus, arts and sports

We have got two art rooms, two computer rooms and rooms for biology, chemistry, geography and physics.

Our cafeteria is very nice. It has got a vending machine for sweets and drinks.
It has got a kiosk where you can buy hot food.

Ludwig Marum worked at the SPD. The Nazis brought him to a concentration camp. There he was killed.
In 1983 the name of the school became Ludwig Marum.

AGs

Our school has many different AGs, such as the string orchestra, Theater AG or Basketball AG.

One World Day

With the money raised on World Day the LMG supports poorer countries.

Our schools

Our school is the Ludwig-Marum-Gymnasium in Berghausen.

It is a large school building with a large yard.

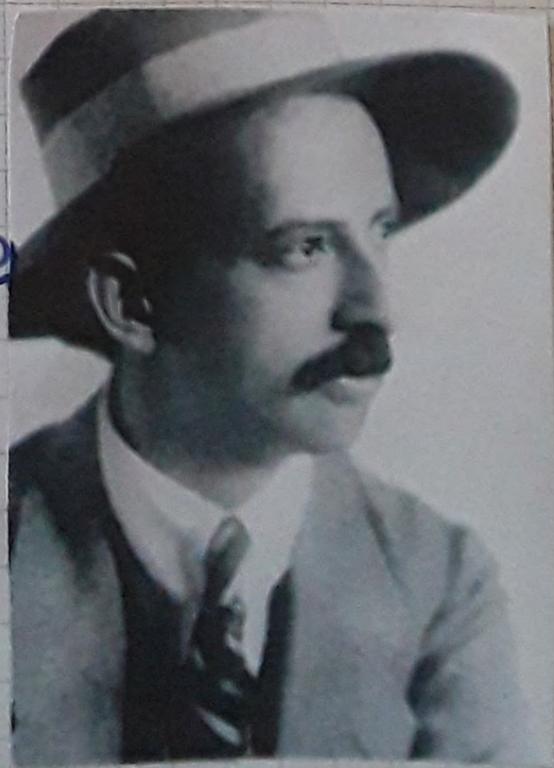

In the building

there is not only the gymnasium but also a secondary school.

Ludwig Marum

Our school has its name of Ludwig Marum, who at that time was politically committed to liberal democracy and against National Socialism.

Our school

Our school is the Ludwig Marum Gymnasium in Pfinztal Berghausen.
It's in the Schlossgartenstr. 11 in the same building
as the Geschwister Scholl Realschule.
There are 717 students and 77 teachers.
We don't have to wear a school uniform.

This is Ludwig Marum. He lived 1882 to 1934 and was killed by the Nazis. Our school wants to remember him.

In our school, there are many rooms. Classrooms and spezial rooms, for example a computer room,
a Music room, an Art room, a Biology room...
There is a cafeteria too. You can buy sweets and have lunch there.

Next to the cafeteria there is a library.
Here you can borrow books, CDs and DVDs.

For sports we have got two big sports halls.
Its names are Julius Hirsch Halle and Pfinztalhalle.
We have got a very big school yard, too.
There you can play with your friends in the big break.
There are two to three tables for table tennis and a little rock for climbing.

Every year there is a special event at our school:
The Eine Welt Tag
At this day all students do a projekt.
You can buy things and eat sweets and lunch
there. The money we get is for helping poor children in other countries.

Our school rules:

- Don't be late for school.
- Bring your books.
- Don't forget your planner.
- Do your homework.
- Be polite.
- Don't run in the school building.
